Operation Fatal To Beloved Wife and Mother

Oct 20 1935

Rhoda E. Ohlwiler, 60, a life-long resident of Heber, died at the local hospital early Sunday morning, surrounded by her immediate family, to whom death came as a decided shock.

She was apparently recovering from the operation for appendicitis, which was performed the previous Monday, until complications developed early Sunday morning which resulted in her death at 9:15 A. M.

Mrs. Ohlwiler was born in Heber, November 8, 1874, daughter of Addison and Elizabeth Moulton Hicken. She was married to John F. Ohlwiler in the Salt Lake temple June 26, 1895. She is survived by her husband and the following named children: Mrs. Venola Cowley of Venice, Utah; Mrs. Thelma Wootton; Mrs. LeOra Lindsay Nell, Wendell and Ferrin Ohlwiler, of Heber; six grand children and the following brothers and sisters: Wm. T. Hicken, Berkeley, California; A. P. Hicken, J. Claud Hicken and J. Errol Hicken; Mrs. J. W. Mahoney, Mrs. L. B. Duke, all of Heber; Mrs. Stanley Ramlose, Salt Lake City, Mrs. Vern Halverson of Moscow, Idaho; Elijah Hicken, Richmond, Utah.

Wendell Ohlwiler, her son, served for four years on a mission for the Church in Tahitian Mission and returned home only a month ago. Mrs. Ohlwiler has been a faithful member of the Church and has held many positions of trust, having served as a member of the Stake Board Relief Society and Stake Primary, and as a member of the Relief Society presidency in the Heber 3rd ward for ten years.

Funeral services were held in the Wasatch Stake Tabernacle Wednesday afternoon, the devotion and esteem of the community being shown by the numerous floral offerings and the large attendance. Bishop Walter Montgomery conducted. The opening prayer was offered by President Clay Cummings and the benediction by Andrew A. Lindsay. Musical selections consisted of a quartette by Mrs. Jean Montgomery, Ann Mahoney, Ralph F. Giles and Bishop Montgomery, accompanied by LaVon Bond, "Wanted on the Other Side." Frank Epperson and Maybell Moulton, accompanied by Mrs. Vera Rasband, sang "Just Beyond the Veil of Passing Years," and "Good Night." Maurine Moulton rendered a violin solo, "An Old Refrain."

The first speaker was Bishop Frederick Crook, under whom Mrs. Ohlwiler had labored as a counselor in the ward Relief Society for ten years. He Rhoda was one of the world's finest women—A wife, a mother, a sister, a friend, whom to know was to love and respect. Every act of her life was the token of a friendly feeling, a personal thought, an unselfish interest in the joy and happiness of others. Always about her was the sweet incense of love as if it were being wafted upward to a realm of perfect contentment. She lived with a cheerful courage and an inward comfort to sweeten it.

Her life of helpful tenderness gave one the sense of contact with the infinite which helps to carry on as if called by the star of future hope. She inspired us all with faith in the great Goodness which lies back of all things. Her memory will always be a benediction.

God grant that our lives may be sweetened because of her having lived rather than saddened by her passing."

CARD OF APPRECIATION

We are grateful to our many kind friends and neighbors for all the acts of kindness shown in our behalf during the brief illness and at the time of death and burial of our beloved wife and mother. We are thankful for service given in the home, for the comforting funeral services, for flowers, music, words of comfort, and for all else that was done to help us in our sad bereavement, and ask that one and all please accept this as our expression of heart-felt appreciation.

John F. Ohlwiler and Family.

John Frederick Ohlwiler

HEBER—John Frederick Ohlwiler, 78, Heber native and for many years secretary for North Field and Wasatch Irrigation Co., died Monday at 3:30 a.m. at his home of causes incident to age.

He was born ept. 26, 1871, a son of Henry and Eliza Jane Baker Ohlwiler. He maried Rhoda Hicken June 26, 1895, in the Salt Lake temple, Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. She died Oct. 30, 1935.

Although handicapped since 1897 by a back injury, he carried on work in L D S organizations, holding offices in Sunday school and Mutual Improvement Assn., and serving as a choir member. A high priest at the time of his death, he served as secretary of the organization for a number of years.

Four daughters and two sons survive: Mrs. Francis (Venola) Cowley, Mrs. Lorenzo (Thelma) Wootton, Mrs. Nell Kowallis, Mrs. Bert (LeOra) Lindsay, all of Heber; John Wendell Ohlwiler, Paradise, Cache county, and Ferrin H. Ohlwiler, Ogden. Also surviving are 16 grandchildren, three great-grandchildren and five sisters: Mrs. Elizabeth Wootton, Miss Mary Ohlwiler, Heber; Mrs. Frances Watkins, Midway, Wasatch county; Mrs. Verna Bennion, Vernal, and Mrs. Clarice Jacobson, Bountiful.

Funeral services will be conducted Wednesday at 2 p.m. in Heber Third L D S ward chapel by I. Sanders, bishop. Burial will be in Heber city cemetery.

Friends may call at the family home, 509, S. 1st East, Tuesday afternoon and evening and Wednesday until time of services.
